

Advice for immigrants and refugees in Gelsenkirchen

We'll gladly assist you with all issues relating to your integration

People who have migrated or fled to Germany have to deal with lots of organisational issues regarding their integration. In Gelsenkirchen the staff at the Community Integration Management (KIM) contact centres will help you with all these matters, including, for instance, with the following:

- Language
- Housing
- Family
- School
- Work
- Education
- Health
- Residency
- Naturalisation

The advice is all free of charge for you and completely confidential. Please do get in touch with the contact centre in your district listed below. At the first meeting you are able to discuss your issues with the advisor and jointly agree the next steps.

NOTE: The offer of this service is for people who have migrated or fled to Germany, are at least 25 years old and are registered in Gelsenkirchen.
